Photographic Exhibition & Gardening Talk

For anyone with an interest in photography or gardening from Monday 24th August to Friday 5th

September there will be an exhibition of photographs of fruit in their various stages of growth in the Granary Library. The exhibition is by Maria Kinsella, photographer & fruit grower.

In conjunction with the exhibition, Maria will give a talk on an "Introduction to fruit growing in pots for City Gardeners". She will give suggestions about suitable fruit for container growing and practical information about how to go about this. The date & time for the talk are yet to be confirmed but will be advertised.

Calling all amateur photographers out there!

To celebrate heritage week (24th - 31st August 2008) we are holding a Digital Photography Competition. The theme for the competition is "Nature/ Wildlife in Urban & Suburban Limerick". Your photo can be of any aspect of nature including animals, birds, insects, plants, scenery etc. from around the local area. There are two categories: Adult & Children. Prizes will be awarded to the best entries and winners will be on display.

The closing date for entries is Friday 22nd August 2008.

Photographs must be submitted as a JPEG (.jpg) file by email to limkcitylibphotocomp@yahoo.ie

In your email please include your name, address, contact phone number, a caption for the photo, location where the photograph was taken & which category you are entering. If you are under 18 please also include your age. Remember that your photo can be anything to do with nature in the locality but no photographs of pets please.

We are looking forward to seeing your photographs so get snapping!

Library Book Club!

Our Library Book Club is taking a break for the summer but if you would like to know what they have read so far this year and what they thought about the books go to www.limerick.ie/Library/BookClub/

The Book Club will be starting up again towards the end of September. We will have a few vacancies for new members, so if you are interested in joining please leave your name & contact details at the Library Desk.

Summer Events in the National Library Dublin

If you happen to be in Dublin during the June & July, the National Library of Ireland is running a programme of events called "Library Late Summer 2008". This year the programme is focusing on travel writing. On 25th June, Peter Somerville-Large will be in conversation with Kay Sheehy (presenter & producer, RTE Radio 1), while on 24th July it is the turn of Dervla Murphy. For more information take a look at the National Library website www.nli.ie click on education & events & then click on events.
